PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

A beautiful backyard on a balmy Tahoe evening was the perfect setting for the IVCBRW's Annual Garden Party. Over 80 guests enjoyed a western buffet from A Catered Affaire!

Speaker Attorney General Adam Laxalt gave encouraging remarks about the success his office has had in winning legal battles against federal intrusion into state issues, such as control over our waterways and the right to use our state lands. Laxalt also spoke about reducing the backlog of rape cases his office inherited from the former Democrat Attorney General as well as providing help to veterans with legal issues. Attorney General Laxalt made a compelling case why it is important to elect a Republican President to rebalance federal courts throughout the United States including the Supreme Court. We are so proud to have Adam Laxalt as Nevada's Attorney General! (You can keep up with Attorney General Laxalt's work for Nevadans on the website: <http://ag.nv.gov/>.)

A special thank you to Janet Pahl and Warren Kocmond, who opened their lovely backyard for this event, Patricia Moser Morris who arranged for the speaker and handled numerous event details, Carol Del Carlo for providing the raffle gift, Jim Clark who tended bar and set up the sound system, and Celine Nugent who secured John Staab of the Nevada GOP to speak to us about the Trump campaign.

I want to highlight the important role each of you can play during the next two months to elect Republicans. Please sign up to be a precinct chair, make phone calls, or canvas door-to-door by calling Phyllis Westrup at 775-747-1238 or calling the Nevada Republican Party at 702-586-2000. Also, please see the flyer on Women of Washoe for Joe Heck (page 7 of this newsletter). Consider spending a Friday afternoon helping this important race to replace Harry Reid.

A special thanks also goes to Contessa (Claire) Price who staffed our boutique booth at the August 20th Annual Basque Fry held at Corley Ranch and sponsored by Morning in Nevada PAC. Our chub shared a booth with Carol Del Carlo and Claire raised over $400 for our sponsorship program that day by selling hats, button and other items in our boutique. The event was another sell-out with uplifting speeches by Senate candidate Joe Heck, former Ambassador John Bolton, Attorney General Adam Laxalt, and others. Thanks to all who enjoyed a day with fellow Republicans and conservative thought leaders.

Finally, I am asking you to mark the following dates.

SEPTEMBER 1st is a fundraiser for Club member and Past President, Carol Del Carlo. Come support Carol by attending her event at the lovely home of Joyce Bock, 1500 Tunnel Creek Road.

Please plan on attending the SEPTEMBER 13th IVCBRW Picnic at Aspen Grove 5-7 PM. We will be hosting a mini-debate on the Washoe County sales tax increase proposal up for a vote on the November ballot. Please come to learn more about this important voter issue (see page 1 for RSVP details).

I look forward to seeing you on the campaign trail!

About our Speakers

TRAY ABNEY

Tray Abney has served as the Director of Government Relations for The Chamber of Reno, Sparks, and Northern Nevada for nine years. He is responsible for ensuring that the largest broad-based business organization in Northern Nevada has a voice at all levels of government, including city, county, state, and federal. During the four previous Nevada Legislative Sessions, Tray worked with the Las Vegas Metro Chamber of Commerce and other business groups to pass much needed long-term spending and education reforms into law.

Prior to joining the Chamber, Tray served as Legislative Director for Nevada Governor Jim Gibbons. Tray spent four years working for Gibbons, including as a senior staff member in his Washington, DC congressional office. During the 2007 Nevada Legislative Session, he was responsible for ensuring that the Governor's agenda was approved by the Legislature and served as the Governor's lobbyist in the legislative building.

Tray graduated summa cum laude from Missouri State University in 2003 with a Bachelor of Science Degree in Political Science and minors in Sociology and Public Administration. Tray received his Master of Arts Degree in Political Management from the Graduate School of Political Management at the George Washington University in Washington, DC in 2005.

JEFF CHURCH

Jeff Church is a retired Reno Police Sergeant. Before joining the Reno Police Department, Jeff graduated as Valedictorian from the Reno Police Academy.

He is also a retired Lieutenant Colonel from the USAF (Reserve and Active duty). Jeff served in the Air Force in Intelligence as well as serving in theatre in Desert Storm and Just Cause (Panama). He was activated after 9-11 and served in support of interrogation efforts in Guantanamo, Cuba.

For many years Jeff taught law enforcement related classes at a local community college. He holds a Bachelor's Degree in Criminal Justice, a minor in Aerospace Studies, and an Associate Degree with Honors in Law Enforcement.

Jeff Church is the owner of DRS Law Enforcement Consulting. DRS conducts seminars on the basics and strategies of effective law enforcement for agency recruiters.

Since his retirement, Jeff is now participating in Reno Public Safety (see www.RenoPublicSafety.org), which is dedicated to public safety issues representing the interests of the taxpayer over that of the unions. Recently he has become involved in the school tax issue when he believed the input of citizens was unjustly ignored.

ABOUT THE "MINI-DEBATE"

JEFF CHURCH and TRAY ABNEY will participate in a "mini-debate" about the pros and cons of the proposed increase in Washoe County sales tax that will appear on the November 2016 ballot. The mini-debate will take place at our club meeting on Tuesday, September 13, 2016 at Aspen Grove on Lakeshore Boulevard in Incline Village. The meeting will begin at 5:00 PM with 30 minutes of socializing, followed by a picnic dinner served at 5:30 PM. The mini debate will begin at 6:15 PM. Tray Abney and Jeff Church and will each give a five-minute opening statement, followed by an informal 20-minute question-and-answer session. During the Q-and-A, we will call on people as they raise their hands (without pre-screening questions). Each participant will have up to two minutes to answer the question – and each will also have the opportunity to answer, whether or not the question was initially addressed to him.

This 2016 Election is the Most Important in our Lifetime!

(Dear Reader – Be sure to Control+Click using your mouse or pointing device on the hyperlinks below for more detailed information on Donald Trump’s policies)

If Hillary Clinton wins the Presidency, “We the People” face a bleak future at best, one riddled with corruption, increasing debt, over regulation and a staggering loss of the freedom and liberty that we have enjoyed for the past 240 years! For 8 years Barack Obama’s failed leadership, executive orders, and progressive policies have eroded these freedoms – and with a Hillary Clinton presidency, this erosion will continue. One of our country’s founders, Thomas Jefferson, recorded that, “A government big enough to give you everything you want, is strong enough to take everything you have.”

A review of the issues at hand, call for you, as a voter, to carefully consider the following - -

EMPLOYMENT, ECONOMY AND THE FEDERAL DEBT – Americans continue to lose economic freedom. Following declines in seven of the past eight years, the United States this year has equaled its worst ever. Labor freedom, business freedom, and fiscal freedom have weakened notably, and the regulatory burden is increasingly costly.

Sadly, millions of Americans are still out of work, have settled for part-time employment, or stopped trying to find employment and the administration has offered very little non-government job creation policies. The cost of food stamps has increased 135 percent to reach a cost of $78 billion last year as more people join the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program.

Under the present administration – and to be continued with Hillary Clinton as president – a record 600 major regulations have been administered. The federal government has imposed a new major regulation every three days since President Barack Obama took office shattering the record for regulation implementation.

As Presidential nominee Donald Trump and Vice-Presidential candidate Mike Pence have repeatedly said, we have a federal debt that combined is more, under Obama’s administration, than any in our country’s history! During the 90 months President Obama has served in the White House, February 2009 through July 2016, the US Treasury has collected $19,966,110,000,000 in taxes and incurred 8,795,689,333,049 in debt. The federal budget for 2016 is expected to come up $590 billion short. So much for Obama’s frequent claim that he was reducing the deficit!

Donald Trump has promised to be “a jobs president.” He has repeatedly pointed out that the American economy has become a “disaster . . . we have no growth right now” under President Barack Obama. “We’re cutting taxes, we are simplifying all taxes for everybody — including corporations, and we’re bringing business taxes down to 15 percent. We’re lowering taxes to get money back into our country. We have trillions of dollars of corporate money outside of the United States. We’re bringing that [rate] down, so companies can bring in these trillions of dollars and put them to work here. We have a plan that is going to really reinvigorate our country . . . like maybe nothing else since Reagan.”

The details are on the Trump website: <https://www.donaldjtrump.com/positions/economic-vision>.

NATIONAL SECURITY AND FOREIGN AFFAIRS

– Hillary Clinton has demonstrated her lack of leadership and careless disregard for security with how she dealt with Libya and the Benghazi disaster, and her decision to receive and send government and personal email using multiple unsecured servers. The sham continued during her years as Secretary of State with the Clinton Foundation. Recently the Washington Post reported, “Rarely, if ever, has a potential commander-in-chief been so closely associated with an organization that has solicited financial support from foreign governments.” While Secretary Clinton traveled to 127 countries during her tenure, she has no accomplishments other than “death and destruction,” according to Donald Trump.

IMMIGRATION AND SECURING OUR BORDERS

– “A nation without laws is no longer a nation,” says Donald Trump. “A borderless country which lets illegal people pore into our communities unchecked by authorities will continue to put our national security and people at risk.” President Obama has done little to stem the tide of destruction and death from ISIS and other extreme Islamic terrorist groups.

Many refugees that are coming into Europe and the U.S. do not integrate into Western lifestyle and stay isolated. More than 3.8 million Syrians are believed to have fled their country in the four years since an uprising against President Bashar Assad led to a civil war. Most who have resettled have traveled to neighboring countries like Lebanon, Jordan and Turkey. The United States last year resettled nearly 70,000 refugees from dozens of countries and has accepted the majority of all referrals from U.N. refugee programs. More than 500 Syrian refugees are in the U.S., and plans call for adding a few thousand more in the next couple of years.

This very important issue is reviewed on the Trump website at <https://www.donaldjtrump.com/positions/immigration-reform>.

MILITARY

– Donald Trump has repeatedly promised to rebuild our military and make it “so big, powerful and strong that no one will mess with us.” He will abolish the gun free zones

President Clinton imposed on U.S. military bases. Donald Trump said President Bill Clinton should never have banned soldiers being able to protect themselves on bases. Under a Trump presidency, “America’s Armed Forces will be armed. Our brave soldiers should not be at risk because of policy created by civilian leadership.”

You can find out more about what President Trump will do to reform the Veterans Administration and help our Veterans at the following site:

<https://www.donaldjtrump.com/positions/veterans-administration-reforms>

AFFORDABLE HEALTHCARE ACT (OBAMACARE)

– Most voters continue to view the national health care law negatively, and fewer voters than ever expect it to lower health care costs. Unless it is repealed and replaced, this expensive, bloated healthcare program will continue to restrict our freedom for decent, fair, and affordable healthcare. The Trump details for repeal and replacing Obamacare are available here: <https://www.donaldjtrump.com/positions/healthcare-reform>.

ENERGY INDEPENDENCE – Donald Trump reminds citizens that we are an energy-rich nation that can absolutely be energy independent. Our energy “policies” under President Obama mainly consist of overregulation in most energy sectors. For example, Obama and Clinton will not allow the completion of the Keystone XL pipeline and there’s little help from the federal government on oil and gas production. Indeed, since 2012, all increases in oil and gas production were on non-federal lands. In March 2016 at a town hall meeting in Ohio, Hillary Clinton declared when she is president, her policies would “put a lot of coal miners and coal companies out of business.” Presently, the US has 27 states that produce significant amounts of coal and employ hundreds of thousands of miners. Donald Trump will reinvigorate and deregulate all our national energy sources including the coal industry.

CHOOSING THE RIGHT PATH TO VICTORY!

The Republicans in the US House of Representatives have done a great job of staying off legislation that would increase taxes on individuals and over-regulate businesses under the now leadership of Speaker Paul Ryan. However, we must continue to keep control of the House and the Senate so we can once again begin to right the wrongs of the Obama administration with the leadership of Donald Trump and Mike Pence.

We must arm ourselves with information that is true and accurate. One of these sources is our very own newsletter, “The Elephants Tale,” which our members receive each month. Our IVCBRW website (<http://www.ivcbrw.org/>) is kept up to date and the Nevada Federation of Republican Women (<http://www.nvfrw.org/>) along with the National Federation of Republican Women (<http://www.nfrw.org/>) are sources that will help keep you abreast of the latest information you need for this election year. Please read your newsletter and visit these websites often! Your vote counts for your local Republican candidates as well as for president. Donald Trump and Mike Pence have promised to “Make America Safe, Secure, and Great Again” – these goals are worthy of your vote!

Remember these encouraging words from Ronald Reagan: “Always remember that you are Americans, and it is your birthright to dream great dreams in this sweet and blessed land, truly the greatest, freest, strongest nation on Earth.” Let’s take back our country in November and begin restoring our birthright of freedom and liberty in this great land of ours.

Hillary Rodham Clinton as First Lady

The following are just a few of the incidents that are documented about Hillary's sojourn as First Lady.

- Hillary Clinton Scandals
- Watergate 1974
 - Whitewater 1978-1998
 - Vince Foster Suicide (?) 1993
 - Travelgate 1993
 - Chinagate 1996
 - Senate Campaign Donations 2000
 - Clinton Foundation 2001-2015
 - Sandy Berger 2007
 - WikiLeaks 2010
 - Benghazi 2012
 - Haiti Mining 2012
 - Private Emails 2015

When Bill Clinton was President, he allowed First Lady Hillary Rodham Clinton to assume authority over health care reform. Her efforts failed even though at the time we had a Democrat controlled US Congress.

President Clinton then gave Hillary authority over selecting a female attorney general. Her first two selections, Zoe Baird and Kimba Wood, were both forced to withdraw their names from consideration. Next, she chose Janet Reno, who husband Bill later described as "my worst mistake." Some may not remember that Reno made the decision to gas David Koresh and the Branch Davidian religious sect in Waco, Texas resulting in dozens of deaths of women and children.

President Bill Clinton also allowed his wife Hillary to make recommendations for the head of the Civil Rights Commission. Lani Guanier, who held radical views, was forced to withdraw her name from consideration. Bill then allowed Hillary to make more recommendations: she chose former law partners Web Hubbel for the Justice Department, Vince Foster for the White House staff, and William Kennedy for the Treasury Department. Her selections went ended badly: Hubbel went to prison, Foster presumably committed suicide, and Kennedy was forced to resign.

During her term as First Lady, Hillary was also allowed to recommend a close Clinton friend, Craig Livingstone, for the position of Director of White House security. Livingstone was investigated for the improper access of about 900 FBI files of Clinton enemies (Filegate) and the widespread use of drugs by White House staff. Hillary and the President denied even knowing Livingstone and denied knowledge of drug use in the White House.

Next, when women started coming forward with allegations of sexual harassment and rape by Bill Clinton, Hillary decided to defend the scandals. One of the women who accused Bill Clinton of sexual harassment was Paula Jones. Special Prosecutor Ken Starr's investigation of the scandal landed on the side of Ms. Jones and Hillary and Bill decided to settle. Starr's investigation eventually led to Monica Lewinsky, which then led to Bill lying about and admitting his affair. This resulted in President Bill Clinton losing his license to practice law for "lying under oath" to a grand jury and then his subsequent impeachment by the House of Representatives.

Finally, after leaving the White House, First Lady Hillary Clinton was forced to return an estimated $200,000 in White House furniture, china, and artwork she stole. . . . But to all her loyal fans, these truths matter not. As she herself said to Congress years later when commenting about the 2012 attack on Benghazi, "What difference at this point does it make?" Electing Hillary Clinton president would be like granting Satan absolution and giving him the keys to heaven!

A lie will easily get you out of a scrape, and yet, strangely and beautifully, rapture possesses you when you have taken the scrape and left out the lie.

~ Charles Edward Montague, Disenchantment

One of the penalties for refusing to participate in politics is that you end up being governed by your inferiors.

Vote Trump/Pence on November 8th to
"Make America Great Again!"

So the Lies Continue to This Day!

The Washington Post recently gave Hillary four pinocchios for the whopper she told on “Fox News Sunday” with Chris Wallace July 31, 2016. Here’s the four pinocchio verdict:

“As we have seen repeatedly in Clinton’s explanations of the email controversy, she relies on excessively technical and legalistic answers to explain her actions. While [FBI Director] Comey did say there was no evidence she lied to the FBI, that is not the same as saying she told the truth to the American public — which was the point of Wallace’s question. Comey has repeatedly not taken a stand on her public statements. And although Comey did say many emails were retroactively classified, he also said that there were some emails that were already classified that should not have been sent on an unclassified, private server. That’s the uncomfortable truth that Clinton has trouble admitting.”

Further in the interview, Clinton said, “Director Comey said my answers were truthful, and what I’ve said is consistent with what I have told the American people, that there were decisions discussed and made to classify retroactively certain of the emails.”

Remember that Hillary Clinton formerly said: “I did not email any classified material to anyone on my email. There is no classified materials. I am confident that I never sent nor received any information that was classified at the time. I had not sent classified material nor received anything marked classified.”

After Clinton denied that, Wallace played another video of an exchange between Comey and Rep. Trey Gowdy (R-S.C.), chair of the House Select Committee on Benghazi:

GOWDY: Secretary Clinton said there was nothing marked classified on her emails either sent or received. Was that true?

COMEY: That’s not true.

GOWDY: Secretary Clinton said, “I did not email any classified material to anyone on my email. There is no classified material.” Was that true?

COMEY: There was classified material emailed.

Hillary Lied in Convention Speech about Helping Disabled Girl

Democratic presidential nominee Hillary Clinton lied in her convention acceptance speech in July when she claimed to have helped a disabled girl get into school. Clinton in her Thursday convention speech repeated a story from her 2008 book Living History. She told of gathering data on children in New Bedford, Massachusetts in 1973 that led to children with disabilities being allowed to attend school.

Hillary Clinton said: “So I went to work for the Children’s Defense Fund, going door-to-door in New Bedford . . . on behalf of children with disabilities who were denied the chance to go to school. I remember meeting a young girl in a wheelchair on the small back porch of her house. She told me how badly she wanted to go to school — it just didn’t seem possible in those days.”

But SouthCoastToday.com reports that John Markey, a Democrat who was mayor at the time, disputes that story. Disabled students did have access to schools in 1973, though it was not always a school in their neighborhood, he said.

ABOUT PINOCCHIO – In the novel The Adventures of Pinocchio (1883) by Italian writer Carlo Collodi, Pinocchio, who is a puppet created by woodcarver named Geppetto, has a nose that changes and grows longer due to his lies. Throughout the book, the author deprecates Pinocchio’s bad for his lack of moral fiber and his persistent rejection of responsibility.
